TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Those interested in participating in a course should first fill in the application and send it via email. Upon review of the application, the applicant may be called in for an interview.

Upon acceptance of the application, the Institute will intimate the participant who will then be required to make the necessary payment.

Those who are really in need of a scholarship may write to the Registrar requesting the same.

PARTICIPATION OF THE COURSE:

Punctuality is mandatory. Consistent late comers will be disqualified from the course.

Being absent for more than 2 classes for a 12 week course will automatically disqualify the participant.

For 5 Weeks courses, you are expected to attend ALL classes failing which you will be disqualified.

Each participant is required to submit periodical assignments.

Depending on the course, a thesis and examination may be required

OBLIGATION:

All those who participate in the Counselling courses, are obliged to contribute 40 hours within the first year to counselling as Community Service. Only then will the certificate be granted.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

All those who graduate are expected to uphold the dignity of the course and the certification. If anyone is found lacking integrity or of malpractice, ETHOS Institute reserves the right to withdraw the certification.
